

Kamel is 38 years old and he comes from Peru. He moved to Italy 10 years ago and he has lived in Milan since then.
He used to work as an express courier for a big company, but at a certain point the company made him redundant because of a temporary lack of work.
He owned the van he was using for his previous work and he had already learned very well how to drive inside and outside the city, so he decided to try and make use of those resources in another way!

This work can be very hard, but for Kamel it would be harder to stay for the whole day locked in an office or in a factory...
He prefers to move!

The business is related to moving things...

You need to have your furniture moved to your new house?

You need to move your new piano from the shop to your living room?

You need to empty your cellar or attic?

Kamel can do it for you!
